

Georgetown Legion awards Remembrance literary and art efforts

Branch 120 of the Royal Canadian Legion (Georgetown) presented prizes to the winners of the its annual Remembrance Poster and Literary Contest at a special presentation recently.

Twelve of 14 Georgetown schools participated in the competition with more than 450 student submitting entries. The Legion handed out about $1,050 in prize money— $40 for first; $30 for second; $20 for third and $5 for honorable mention. Each participant received a ribbon.

Four retired teachers, Mary Shier, Antonine Landry, Jane Campbell and Rena Ghose, judged the entries.

The first place winners will now advance to the Zone B-7 level (Halton and Region). They will also have their entries placed into the time capsule at the re-dedication of the Remembrance Park next year.
