

Annie is sold out

The sets and lighting are a work of art, depicting the cold dirty orphanage and the lavish Warbucks' mansion with lots of flair. Even the radio station scene is well depicted, complete with 1930s style microphones.

It's unlikely there are any songs that the audience doesn't know. From signature tune Tomorrow, to other favorites like Hard Knock Life and Easy Street, the musical never ceases to entertain.

Globe's Annie is sold out for all performances—a first since Globe presented Oklahoma some 18 years ago.

But that's no surprise. Judging from the calibre of the show—it's a well deserved honor.
