

Halton Youth Symphony seeks alumni for spring reunion

Halton Youth Symphony (HYS) is looking for alumni who wish to help celebrate its 25th season.

The board of the HYS hopes to gather alumni for a special reunion concert in the spring.

"We're really excited," said HYS president, Monika Tan-Meyer.

"Both orchestras are developing very well, and we want to celebrate. Jean Grieve did a wonderful thing when she started the HYS."

Halton Youth Symphony has given hundreds of young musicians the chance to develop musicianship and friendships by playing in the orchestra.

"We would love to be able to bring alumni from 20 or 25 years ago together with more recent alumni and our current musicians."

Alumni who would like to celebrate the HYS should e-mail the orchestra at HaltonYouthSymphony@hotmail.com or call Tammy Moore, the manager, at (416) 410-2319. Leave a message that includes current name, name while in the orchestra (if different), e-mail and postal addresses, phone number, and the instrument played.

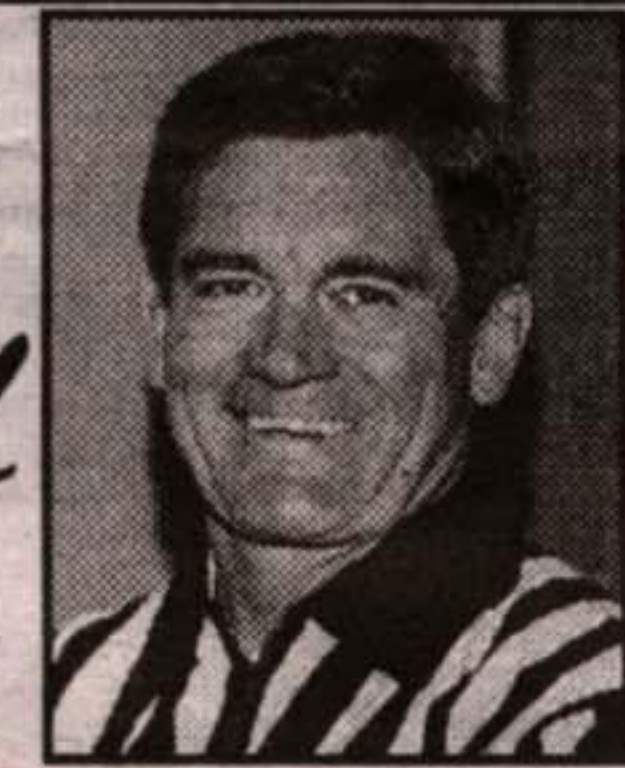

The Halton Youth Symphony organization includes a senior orchestra (known as the Halton Youth Symphony) and a junior orchestra (the Halton Chamber Orchestra).

Janez Govednik returns this year to lead the Halton Youth Symphony. Zhipei Lui is in his first year as conductor of the Halton Chamber Orchestra.

The orchestras travel periodically, and hold three concerts each year. This year's performances will be in Burlington, Georgetown and Oakville. The first concert of the year will be held Dec. 5 at Aldershot High School in Burlington.
