

Silver Threads seniors' group disbands

By DAVE HASTINGS
Georgetown Seniors Centre news

A bit of sad news to begin our column this week. After about three years as a group, meeting at the Georgetown Seniors Centre, the Silver Threads have disbanded. We always hate to see clubs fold, but interests change and people go onto other things. One of their last pieces of business was the transfer of Silver Threads funds to the Georgetown hospital. I'm sure the group will be missed but we hope that you will find other activities within the centre to interest you.

Our "euchre man" Jack Dilks is back in Oakville-Trafalgar hospital suffering from fluid buildup. Jack recently underwent a heart bypass operation and recuperation is taking longer than expected. We understand also that Jack's wife Audrey, is suffering a severe bout of arthritis. We wish you both a swift recovery and hope to see you at the centre soon.

From Adriana, our co-ordinator:

• The newsletter is ready for pick-up at the centre. If for health reasons you are unable to pick it up, call the centre at 877-6444 for delivery.

• Open house/registration week is scheduled for Sept. 11-15. There will be free classes, contests and prizes all week.

• On Tuesday, Sept. 12 at noon there will be a barbecue and corn roast

• Our own version of Who Wants to be a Millionaire will be held on Thursday, Sept. 14 at 1:30 p.m. Come and check us out.

A reminder: bingo will be held Sept. 7 at 7 p.m. and Sept. 11 at 1:30 p.m.— these are for members only. Men's Night Out will be held Monday, Sept. 18 at 6:30 p.m. There are still a few tables left for the craft sale on Saturday, Oct. 7 Call Dorothy Hazelden at 877-6444 to book yours.

And finally, an evening of euchre and bridge was held on Tuesday, Aug. 15. Prize winners were Helen Humphries (ladies high), Ethel McEachern, Wilma Parker, Glad Inglis (tied for lone hands), Lydia Dyball (low score), Bernice Bradner (men's high), Joyce Howard (lone hands), Mike Korbey (low score). Lorne Hunter hosted the euchre and Terry Bignell hosted four tables of bridge. Ted and Eleanor Murphy and Dot Hazelden served refreshments.

Until next time, cheerio!

Acton Seniors are off to solve a mystery

Well, here I am again for a while.

We had winners of the 50/50 draws; Pat Thompson and Robert Snyder won the last two.

We had some mooners for the month. Edna Nellis had two, Ruth Burke, Elma Braida, Jean Jackson and Mae Milton had one each. I hear the bid euchre is going on quite good.

We have a Mystery Dinner Theatre at the Old Mill Restaurant on Wednesday, Sept. 6. The play is Who Want to Be A Dead Millionaire? Someone dies and no life line can help. It is a hilarious whodunit. We leave at 9:45 a.m. and return at 4 p.m. Cost includes eats and show. Phone in and get your name on the list as seating is limited.

More great trips are planned for October.

Recreation dept. has lost and found

Is your child missing any of their belongings after attending a Halton Hills Recreation and Parks summer camp?

Claim the items at the Civic Centre. All lost and found items not claimed by Sept. 29 will be donated to Goodwill.

MANAGING HARD TO CHEW FOODS

The first step in managing hard to chew foods is to make sure your teeth & dentures are in good condition. If you have dentures, you should have them checked each year. Even if you are not having any specific discomfort, there could be hidden problems. The teeth on your denture wear down over the years and become dull. Some foods might actually be taking you twice as long to chew, because of dulling teeth. It is worth the time to visit our office and make sure your dentures fit correctly.

If you still find chewing difficult, try changing the method of preparation, instead of the food. For example, try roasting, stewing or broiling meat, and then chop or slice thinly. Use canned or stewed fruits, or drink fruit & vegetable juices. Grate cheese or use in sauces and eat cottage cheese & yogurt. You may find a blender or food processor helpful when preparing your food.

You do not need a referral; simply call our office direct.

Creating confident smiles since 1982.
