Raiders win, tie with Merchants

With the regular season quickly approaching, the Georgetown Raiders are already sending the message they are not about to give up top billing in the West Conference.

The Raiders defeated their north Halton rivals, the Milton Merchants 7-3 in Saturday's Provincial Jr. A Hockey League exhibition game.

Stace Page and Mike Knoepfli, who will be relied upon to supply offence for the Raiders this season, each scored twice. Page's two goals gave Georgetown a 2-0 first-period lead. Despite goals by Knoepfli and Scott MacDonald in the second, Milton managed to climb within a goal at 4-3.

The Raiders put the game away early in the third when Knoepfli and Daryl Knowles scored 21 seconds apart. Matt Knoepfli added another goal in the final minute.

The Raiders and Milton played to a 4-4 tie the previous night.

Tristan Fairbairn gave the Raiders a 4-3 lead in the third but Milton scored with 11:46 to play to even the score.

David Lajeunesse, Knowles and T.J. Trevelyan had the other goals.

They open the regular season Friday night in Milton and play their first home game Saturday night in Streetsville. Game time is 7:30 p.m. at the Alcott Arena.

RAIDER RAP: The Raiders signed goalie Kyle Rogers. He'll back up Andrew Reynolds.... Lajeunesse injured his shoulder and will miss the first few weeks of the season.
