

More than 200 attend Seniors' Centre gala

What a kick-off to a new year in the Georgetown Seniors' Centre! More than 200 members and friends attended our gala open house/registration week festivities September 12.

On display were guessing contests and some of the classes available, e.g. workouts and computers class, and the travel desk was open for inspection. At noon, a hot dog and corn-on-the-cob luncheon was served. Following lunch, free card games and a class in square dancing was held.

Throughout the day the crowd was entertained by 'Cory's One Man Band' playing the oldie goldies—our kind of music. Many thanks to all the hard workers.

Our on-going evening euchres and bridge games are drawing a faithful crowd. On Sept. 5, Lorne Hunter hosted a euchre and Terry Bignell hosted bridge with 46 euchre players and 17 bridge players attending. Sept. 8, Jim Taylor called bingo for 35 players.

September 19 at 1:30 p.m., Geri Fashions of London will hold a fall and winter showing at the centre. Cost is $5.

For the men, don't forget men's night out on Sept. 18, starting at 6:30 p.m. Pool, cribbage, euchre, shuffleboard, carpet bowling and darts are available. Cost is only a toonie.

The craft group ladies would like to thank all who assisted in the sale of tickets for the quilt at the fall fair. It was a good day with over $200 in sales. The draw is Nov. 4, and tickets are available for $1 apiece, or three for $2.

The centre will be open October 10 from 10 a.m.-7 p.m. for anyone who would like to receive a flu shot. There is no charge for anyone over 65. Please sign up at the desk by October 6.

Until next time—cheerio!
