Acton Seniors' Centre news

We had a 50-50 winner on Sept. 1 as May Dyriw took home a nice bundle.

• We have a nutrition seminar on Sept. 18 at 1 p.m. where health experts will tell members how to enhance their eating.

• The next trip to Casino Rama is set for Wednesday, Sept. 27 with the bus leaving at 8:45 a.m. The cost is $5 for two people (Nick and I are missing all the bargains).

• Computer classes will start in October.

• A self-defence class will be held Monday, Sept. 25 at 1:30 p.m. Be sure to attend to see how you can help yourself.

• The winners at our monthly euchre were John Campbell and Ernie Pearce who shared first and second. Rae Parker was low while Bernice Kilpatrick was the ladies high scorer. An unidentified Georgetown lady was second while Mae Milton held the most lone hands.

Thanks to everyone who told my husband they were glad to see me back in the newspaper again. I'm sure glad to be back. Watch for more information as I get it

Georgetown student named to Dean's list

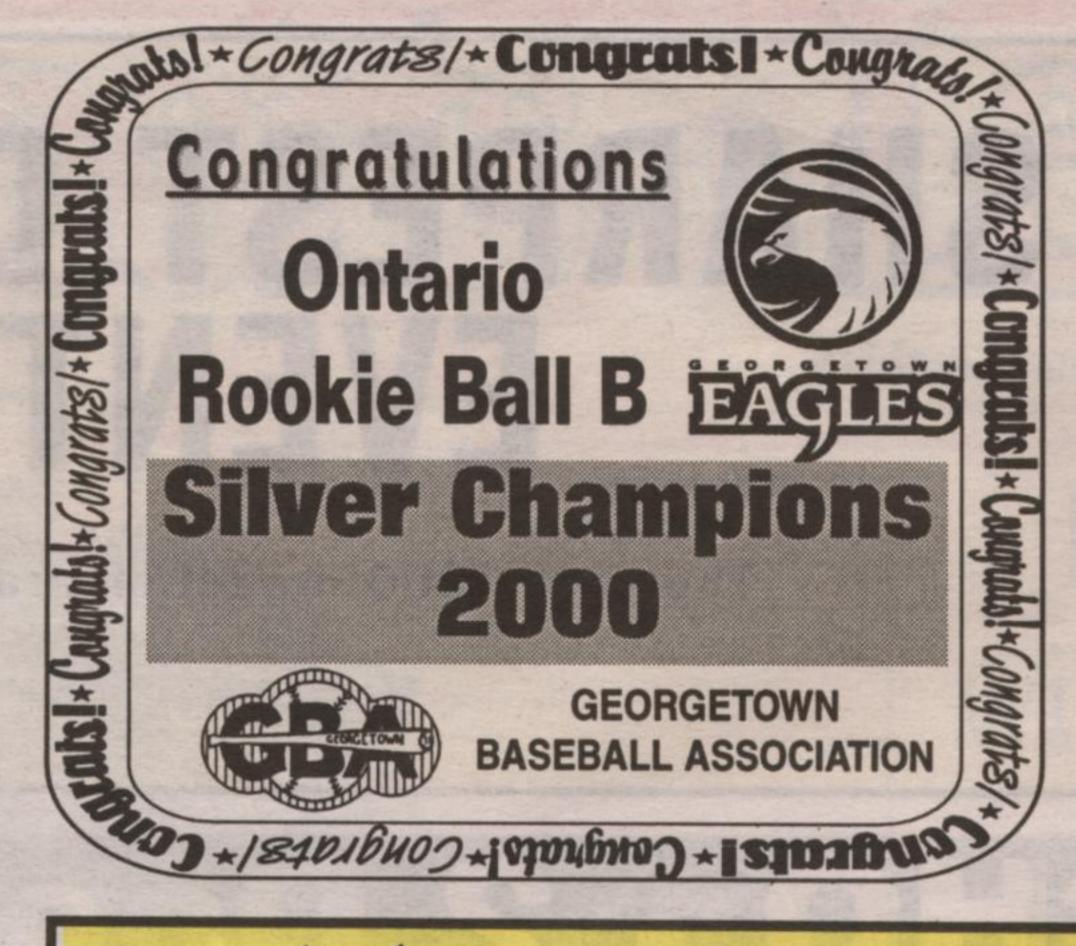

David Kotsos of Georgetown was named to the Dean's List at Bowling Green State University.

Kotsos, a senior education and human development student at the Ohio university, made the list for the spring semester. Students must have a grade-point average of 3.5 (on a scale of 4.0) or better to be named to the Dean's list.
