It's time to start baking for the long holiday season ahead, and The Independent & Free Press and Company's Coming Cookbooks can help you get started.

Guide to the Outdoors

Julie Pomeroy

When I started Canoe Country eight years ago, I remember asking myself "How hard can it be to sell a canoe after being in aviation for eighteen years and teaching the dynamics of flight?" Many of the principles apply to both, but what I didn't expect was the constant training and knowledge required to keep up with materials and design in other areas related to the business - hiking boots, clothing systems, light weight stoves, water purifiers, backpacks and so on. Each season we have manufacturing representatives come out and train us again on what's new. On Thursday, Oct. 19 from 6:30-8:30, Ron Barr will show us how to use the latest equipment from Lowe Alpine Packs and MSR. Public welcome. Refreshments. RSVP.
