LCBO staffers get cookin'

The Georgetown LCBO, located in the Georgetown Marketplace Mall, raised $5,400 for the Georgetown Hospital Foundation recently. The store held a charity raffle with a number of prizes as well as a barbecue. Tending the barbecue were LCBO employees (from left) Carolyn Williams, Sally Burgoyne, Debbie White and Linda Mandarino. Mall neighbor, Loblaws donated the food for the barbecue.

Georgetown Volkswagen to host Beetle fun rally

Bugs will be invading Halton Hills on Saturday, Oct. 14— Georgetown Volkswagen is arranging a fun rally for all Beetle customers.

Invitations have gone out to all of Georgetown Volkswagen's Beetle owners, but this is an opportunity for all Beetle owners, family and friends to enjoy a drive in the Halton Hills countryside.

This is a social event and a chance for Beetle lovers to get together and have some fun. Each entrant will receive a "goodie bag" and there will be prizes as well.

Instructions will be handed out at the Start (Georgetown Volkswagen), at 10 a.m. and the cars will leave at two minute intervals. Participants have to answer the questions and follow the route; this is not a race, but a fun run.

The Finish is back at the dealership where Maple Lodge Farms will be providing hot dogs for all.

Anyone owning a Beetle and have not yet received an invitation should call Chris Miller at Georgetown Volkswagen for details, (905) 873-6330.
