Ward 2 hopeful drops out of race

Ted Thompson, a candidate for local Ward 2 seat in the Nov. 13 municipal elections, withdrew his nomination yesterday (Thursday).

The Norval resident cited personal reasons.

This leaves incumbent Kevin Kuiack and newcomer Joan Robson of Glen Williams in the running for the two ward seats.

Scouts are poppin'

Local scouts will be pounding the pavement today (Friday) as they kick off their annual sale of Trails End Gourmet Popcorn, which runs through November 3.

Money raised from popcorn sales will help finance activities for scouts in the Central Escarpment Region, which has more than 380 youths registered in the Georgetown area.

Crime Stoppers golf

Crime Stoppers of Halton will receive approximately $7,000 from their recent annual golf tournament at Georgetown Golf Course. Organized by the Precept Insurance Group and sponsored by Pilot Insurance, players included (from left) Precept CEO Jim McGregor, Cliff Jones of Pilot Insurance, Halton Crime Stoppers Chair Karen Sunter and Precept golf tournament organizer R. J. Farnworth.
