Schubert plays Schubert at Speedside fest

Thomas Schubert, the distinguished pianist, vocal accompanist and conductor makes his debut at the Speedside Festival this fall.

Schubert, who is now based in New York, is related to the great Viennese composer Franz Peter Schubert (1797-1828) as a direct descendent of Franz's grandfather, who originally came from Moravia.

Simon Wynberg, the Speedside festival's artistic director, said he was "delighted" that Schubert had managed to include a visit to Ontario in his very busy schedule.

"He is an extremely fine musician and a master accompanist and the music of Schubert is, quite literally, in his blood."

The Speedside Festival takes place October 19-22 at Ebenezer United Church, west of Acton. To book tickets phone: (519) 763-3000. For further information call (519) 824-3770.

Hollywood in Hornby

Frank Chisholm of Hornby suddenly found himself in the middle of a movie set—and it was his own home. Filming for a television movie, For the Love of Olivia, took place at his Steeles Ave. home and at St. Stephen's Church in Hornby where a mock funeral was conducted. The production company gave Chisholm's home a new look, including a white picket fence with newly planted flowers, a wheelchair ramp, a porch swing and then (above) making his shed look like "granny's house" complete rustic chairs and tables.

Fine arts society hosts autumn art tour

The Fine Arts Society of Milton has begun planning for its third annual fall studio tour October 14 and 15.

This year's tour, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., each day, will feature the work of more than 20 artists in 13 locations throughout the Milton area—some just minutes from Halton Hills.

The tour is self-guided and free. For more information call (905) 876-2837.
