

Road work affects Trafalgar Rd. businesses

Winners of the Sept. euchre at the Ballinafad Community Centre were Mary Graydon, first, 101; Grace Brown, Elmer Pemberton, second, 93; Eileen Wedge, third, 91. Glad Inglis, Flo Corbett and Henning Rasmussen shared the most lone prize with five each. And it seemed a night of ties with low score of 61 going to both Flora McArthur and Nina Bird. Thirty-six people attended to fill nine tables.

The construction along Trafalgar Rd. N. (Seventh Line) is having quite a negative financial impact on businesses in the area.

Even though it may be inconvenient would it be possible for folks to drop by The Ballinafad Farm Market, The Ballinafad General Store, Suny's gas station at Silvercreek and the Doorn Garden Centre. These businesses have always generously supported this community. It is now our turn to help them.

Volleyball is well under way for the season. Check it out at Acton's McKenzie-Smith Bennett School every Friday night beginning at 8 p.m. This is a mixed group of adults with everyone welcome.

Glen school celebrates 50th birthday tomorrow

It's a busy weekend in Glen Williams! After all the preparations, the 50th Anniversary of Glen Williams School has finally arrived. Tomorrow (October 14) at 2 p.m. come down to the school to remember the way it was and celebrate!

Saturday is also Apple Day for all of our Beavers and Cubs. We've got a thriving Beaver Colony this year and are delighted that we've got a Cub Pack again, so please show your support for this program when you see those smiling faces and shining apples at your door!

On Sunday (October 15) The Marion Singers are back at St. Alban's at 3 p.m. for a concert of sacred and secular music from the 15th century to the 20th century. If you missed them when they were here for the concert series a few years ago, you'll want to come out and hear them now. Tickets are $10.

Jr. Farmers observe 85th anniversary year

This year marks the 85th year of the Halton Junior Farmers organization and to celebrate an anniversary dinner/dance will be held on Saturday, Nov. 25 at the Gordon Alcott Arena hall in Georgetown.

This evening will consist of a dinner followed by a slide show depicting Junior Farmer events and members from past and present, a silent auction, a showcase of Junior Farmers talent in the area and a dance.

Proceeds from the evening will go towards Rose Cherry's Home in Milton—this year's provincial Junior Farmer charity.

A slide show and display of past Halton Junior Farmer memorabilia is being prepared for this evening. If you have any pictures, trophies, minute books, club jackets, newspaper clippings or great memories that you would be willing to share, or would like tickets, contact Debbie Brander at 873-2143.
