

Lionesses to hold fund-raising craft night

The Georgetown Lioness Club is offering its third Create-A-Craft event at the Lions Hall on Mill St. in Georgetown on Wednesday, October 25.

There are six crafts being offered and the public is invited to register to learn a new craft and complete the project the same night.

The projects offered are:

- Potpourri candle holder—double glass orchid bowls co-ordinated to your colour choice
- Decorative soaps—bars of soap covered and decorated
- Illuminated pine cone basket—light up your table or mantle

with this basket of pine cones with miniature lights

- Country (milk can look) candle holder—made from glass jars
- Snowman centrepiece—decoration for your table or mantle
- Santa Claus candy dish—candy jar and lid painted in Santa Claus motif

Course registration is $15 and material costs range from between $5 and $8 each. Preregistration is necessary for the event. To register or for more information call 877-3929 or 873-0265.

Proceeds from this event go to community projects supported by the Lioness Club of Georgetown.

Men of Acton calendar unveiled at Gala

It's going to be an entertaining evening at the Acton Agricultural Society's Gala Dinner & Auction, because that's when the much-anticipated Men Of Acton 2001 calendar will be unveiled.

Twelve full colour pictures, featuring some of the most familiar men in town—Councillor Clark Somerville for example—(in poses you might not expect), celebrating the agricultural theme of the Acton Fall Fair.

The evening at Blue Springs Golf Club includes a full course dinner, a live auction, a silent auction and the official unveiling of the calendar.

"Already we are hearing some very humorous stories coming about because of these pictures and we are expecting to hear even more on the night of the 20th," said Janis Fread, the Agricultural Society's fundraising co-ordinator.

The Gala Dinner and Auction is this Friday October 20, cocktails at 6:30 p.m., dinner at 7:30 p.m. and the auction at 9 p.m.

Tickets are $40/person and all proceeds from the evening go to the Acton Agricultural Society's Building Our Future campaign.

"Most of the men featured in the calendar will be present at the dinner, so we expect some good natured ribbing and comments from the audience," said Fread.

Tickets are available at the Needle Gnome, Wetherby's or by calling 853-0239.

Calendars will be available starting October 23 at various stores throughout town, but if you want an amusing "inside story" on the men and the making of the calendar, be sure to be at the dinner on Friday.
