

Singing group supports hearing centre

Karen MacKenzie-Stepner of Halton Hills Speech Centre on Guelph Street recently accepted a cheque for $7,000 from Bill Powers, Cam Duthrie and Don Lindsay, members of the Royal City Ambassadors barbershoppers. This marks the second year the group has donated funds, which will be used to purchase speech and language materials for the use of residents of north Halton. The funds were donated by the Ontario District of the Society for Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America, from their Harmonize for Speech fund.

Ex-Pig & Whistle entertainer is on The Fall Follies bill

Billy Meek, otherwise known as the Jovial Scot, will be appearing at the John Elliott Theatre on Friday, Oct. 20, 7:30 p.m. when Arts Alive presents its Fall Follies Variety Show.

Many of Meek's fans will remember him as a regular performer on the television show, The Pig and Whistle, which showcased his many talents as comedian, song-and-dance man and versatile musician. He has performed on radio, television, and stage across Canada and the United States.

Meek will share the bill with Dick Joiner and the Westminster Chimes troupe in a night of song, dance and hilarious comedy. Tickets, $15, are on sale now at the theatre box office, 877-3700.

BILLY MEEK
