

Raiders find home wins hard to come by

then Mason Drew tied the game midway through the third. Just as things looked promising, Buffalo regained the lead with six minutes to play and held on for the win despite being outshot 36-20.

In the end, a lot of little missed chances added up to one big missed opportunity. The Raiders failed to capitalize on a two-minute two-man advantage, missing an open net, hitting two posts and a crossbar.

"You don't get many chances like that," Fairbairn said. "That could have made it a different game."

At the other end, the Raiders' Jekyll and Hyde goaltending has been worrisome.

"Right now, the concern is big because we've given up five soft goals the last two Saturdays," said Raider coach Simon Couture. "We showed a lot of character coming back from 3-0 but it's tough to start a game when you give up two goals in the first minute."

Kyle Rogers gave the team a solid effort Friday but neither he nor starter Andrew Reynolds looked sharp on Saturday.

Whatever it is that's ailing the Raiders at home, they better correct it soon. They host Mississauga Friday and Oakville Saturday. Both games are 7:30 p.m. starts at Alcott Arena.

RAIDER RAP: The Raiders sold winger David Lajeunesse to Welland of the Golden Horseshoe Jr. B League.... Ryan Busby had two assists Saturday.... Six teams are within three points of the lead in the West Conference.
