Bandits repeat as men's flag football champs

The Bandits captured their fourth straight Georgetown Men's Flag Football championship Sunday by downing the Dawgs 39-14.

The Bandits, who have not lost a game in three years, built a 24-8 lead by halftime. Tim Lang and the Dawgs' Brad Ferguson exchanged touchdowns early on but the Dawgs pulled away on majors by Morrissey and Chris Giannos. Morrissey and Lang each finished with two touchdowns for the Bandits. Bruce Derraugh had a pair of two-point converts.

Lang had a successful season capturing the league's MVP award, rookie of the year and scoring title. The Bandits' Duff Moore took the playoff MVP award while Delroy George of Shoeless Joe's led the league in interceptions and was the defensive player of the year. Linkline's Steve Crossman topped the league in sacks.

The Bandits' Dave Morrissey eludes a Dawgs opponent in Saturday's Georgetown Men's Flag Football final. Morrissey scored two touchdowns as the Bandits captured their fourth straight championship with a 39-14 victory.
