Raiders find home is no place to like

Home has been anything but sweet for the Georgetown Raiders this season.

The Raiders again left the Alcott Arena faithful little to cheer about after a 4-3 loss to Buffalo Lightning Saturday. The defeat dropped the Raiders to 2-3-0 at home, a situation they'll have to correct if they're going to stay in the hunt for first place in the Ontario Provincial Jr. A Hockey League's West Conference.

"We're usually a good team at home. We get good crowds but not winning here puts the pressure on," said Tristan Fairbairn, who scored twice to help the Raiders rally from an early 3-0 deficit. "Having to win in the other team's rink is not a good position to be in."

To their credit, the Raiders have managed to do it. Friday's 4-1 win over Bramalea extended their unbeaten streak on the road to six games and that's kept them within two points of front-running Buffalo.

But, the Raiders could have been on the top of the heap had they won Saturday. Instead, they dug themselves into a 2-0 hole in the game's first minute and were down by three by the end of the opening period.

Fairbairn's two goals got them back within one and
