Raiders work overtime for a point

While the Georgetown Raiders have been unbeatable on the road lately, Tuesday's 7-6 loss in Streetsville had some frightening similarities to their last game at home, where they've struggled this season.

For the second game in a row, the Raiders had a chance to move into first place. For the second game in a row they spotted their opponents a three-goal lead. For the second game in a row they rallied to tie the game in third. And for the second game in a row they lost.

The key difference was this time the Raiders forced an extra period to pick up a valuable point in the Provincial Jr. A Hockey League's West Conference. The Raiders currently sit tied for second in a log-jam that has seven teams within four points of top spot.

The Raiders trailed the Derbys 6-3 late in the third but rallied for three goals in the final 3:03. Tim Williams set up Stace Page for the tying goal with 45 seconds remaining. The goal was Page's third of the game. Mike Knoepfli had a goal and two assists and Scott MacDonald and Adam Russell also scored. Billy Fetherston had three assists.

Streetsville managed to reverse the Raiders' momentum to pick up the win in overtime despite being outshot in every period, including OT. The Raiders had a 46-35 edge for the game.

There was more bad news for the Raiders other than the loss. Third-year defenceman Brydon Butterworth broke his wrist and is expected to miss six to eight weeks. Butterworth went into the boards awkwardly after being checked. Josh Vanderbruggen will be brought up from the Halton Hurricanes to replace him.

The Raiders host Mississauga Friday. The Chargers are currently one point back of Georgetown in fourth place. Saturday, the Oakville Blades are in town. Both games are 7:30 p.m. starts at Alcott Arena.
