HEY KIDS- THERE'S PRIZES!

Blue Circle supports local groups

Four local groups received a $1,000 donation each from Blue Circle Aggregates recently. Blue Circle made the donation from money they received from a production company that shot an episode of The Famous Jett Jackson at the Acton quarry last month. On hand for the cheque presentations were (in front) Haleigh Rees and Jack O'Brien, and (back, far left) Lois Fraser of the Georgetown Children's Chorus, John Day of the Remembrance Park Millennium Project Steering Committee, Moreen Miller of Blue Circle Aggregates, Rosslyn Dowell of Halton Hills Community Support and Information, and (in back right) Joe Brooks and Susan Cox of Limehouse Memorial Hall.

Town library offers Grade 4 program

Hey parents, did you know Halton Hills Public Libraries offer a special free program for Grade 4 students? Every Halton Hills Grade 4 class has been invited to participate. Children will visit the library, get their own card, and hear about some great books. Ask your child's teacher about the Read to Succeed program.

8 RACES. $5 MILLION. NO REGIS.

Mohawk Racetrack - more exciting than a little man on a high chair peppering contestants with questions any day. Particularly this October 27th. A total purse of $5.7 million for eight championship horse races is sure to attract a large crowd. So give Regis the night off, and get out to experience one of the most exciting nights of horse racing of the year.
