ARMSTRONG, Arthur - In loving memory of a dear husband, father and grandfather who passed away Oct. 21st. 1999 Dearly loved and sadly missed.

CURRIE, Dale - 1962-1990. In loving memory if a dear son, brother, uncle and nephew who passed away October 28, 1990.

We often think of days gone by, When we were all together The family chain is broken now, But memories will live forever You left us all, we wonder why, There was no time to say goodbye Before you went away, But in our hearts you're with us still Each and every day. God does not discriminate against the troubled and tormented. Always loved and remembered by Mom and families

HAINES, John - In loving memory of a wonderful dad, poppa, coach, friend and mentor who passed away October 30, 1981.

You were so much to us then and even more to us now. You demonstrated passion and commitment everyday at home, work and in the community. You joined with Mom to demonstrate teamwork (28+ years of marriage) and we have all used my favorite example of teamwork - "Go ask your mother". (Your humour was very special, and lives on in all of us.) Many times we refer back to the lessons of life handed down, especially now as we pass them on to our children. You taught us to do the right thing, not just to do things right. You taught us, now we teach; walking, running, riding, throwing, catching, hitting, pitching, skating, shooting, saving, spiking, setting, driving, collecting, flipping burgers, buying (1st & 2nd Mustangs), working, playing, loving, laughing, coaching & mentoring. You will always live on in our hearts and in our actions. We are so proud to call you Dad, Poppa, Coach, Friend and Mentor: Jeff, Irene, Erin & Matt, Terry, Gloria, Michael, Kelly & Jessie, Scott, Karen, Phillip, Johnathan & Trevor, Chris, Lynn & Mystic.
