Glen Williams community group to host all-candidates meeting

By ELIZABETH MITCHELL
Glen Williams news

As the municipal election approaches, the Glen Williams Community Association is sponsoring an All-Candidates Meeting. Mark your calendars for November 2 at 7:30 p.m. at the Glen Williams Town Hall.

All mayoral candidates, and regional and municipal council candidates for Ward 2 have been invited to take part.

Our council following this election will be making many decisions which will affect the future of the Glen, and this is your opportunity to ask questions! Remember the secondary plan for the Glen will be done soon, so it's a good time to make yourself heard. And speaking of the secondary plan, the Planning Department is organising an information session coming up at the Glen Williams Town Hall on November 30, so remember that date and watch the Glen Williams news column for details.

School reunion success

Congratulations and thanks to all the organizers of the 50th Anniversary Celebration at the Glen Williams School. It was a real treat to have so many students and teachers fondly recollecting their time at our school. And the students of today got a real kick out of seeing the class pictures from 'yesteryear' ... wonder how today's fashions will look at the 100th anniversary?

Kinsmen supports local motion

tion campaign chairman Jonathon Fischer, Kinsmen Bruce Leonard, Brian Bahm, Sandy French and Dan Breznicar. The local motion campaign is raising $2-million for the new leisure centre and the twinning of Alcott Arena.
