655 In memoriam

HANCOCK, Grace - October 31st. 1999
What would we give her hand to clasp,
Her patient face to see;
To hear her voice, to see her smile,
As in the days that used to be.
But some sweet day we'll meet again
Beyond the toil and strife,
And clasp each other's hand once more
In Heaven, that happy life.
Rob and Linda

IN loving memory of a dear father and grandfather, William Leslie, who passed away 31st. October 1960
40 years later
As you were,
You will always be,
Treasured forever in our memory
Your family,

MOORE, Greg, passed away tragically on Oct. 31st. 1999.
We miss you brother.

SAYERS, James - Nov. 1st. 1976
"Dad we miss you".
Love always, Shirley, Lynda, Lorna & families

660 Card of thanks

AN extra special thank-you must be extended to the Acton Seniors Wheels to Meals Group and the Elizabeth Drive Seniors who truly amazed me with a wonderful bridal shower at our last luncheon. I don't even know what to say except that my gifts were beautiful and totally unexpected. You're the reason I love my job a and coming to work each day. Your care and concern is always appreciated.
Love Terri

THANK you to our family and friends who made our Stag & Doe such a happy and meaningful evening. Special thanks to everyone who helped plan, prepare and serve the food, games and draws. We hope everyone had as good a time as we did. We are very lucky to have family and friends like you. I would also like to thank the many family and friends who come to the beautiful shower. I was over whelmed by the incredible gifts and blown away by the purchase of the bed that many people help support, it was greatly appreciated. As I looked around the room I felt truly grateful for all the special family and friends that P.J. and I share.
Thanks again
Love Terri and P.J.
