POLICE BLOTTER

Erin man faces charge

An Erin man was charged with possession of a controlled substance after Halton Police pulled over a vehicle in a spot check at Young and Peel streets in Acton Wednesday night, and found a small quantity of marijuana.

Charged is Mark Harlow, 20, of Guelph Rd.

Impaired charge laid

A Georgetown man was charged with impaired driving and having over 80 mg of alcohol in 100 ml of blood after police pulled over a vehicle on Prince Charles Dr. Wednesday evening.

Charged is Jean Mark Allard, 49, of Prince Charles Dr.

Boy, 11, bitten by dog

An 11-year-old Georgetown boy was bitten by a Rottweiler while walking on Lynden Circle Saturday afternoon. The dog had broken free from his rope in the backyard and bit the boy on the leg. There were no puncture marks but the youth was taken to Georgetown Hospital to be checked.

The Halton Health Department was called and the owner was cautioned.

Shelburne driver charged

A Shelburne man was charged with care and control and having over 80 mg of alcohol in 100 ml of blood after police were called to an accident on Winston Churchill Blvd. Sunday morning.

When police arrived they found a man in a pick-up truck which had struck a tree. He wasn't injured.

Charged is Frank Haarsthorne, 28, of Deer Rd.

Sign tossed through window

About $500 damage was caused at Thrifty Car Rental on Guelph St. late Friday or early Saturday when a cement and metal sign was tossed through a window.

Dog bites Acton cyclist

A 30-year-old Acton man was treated and released at Georgetown Hospital after he was bitten by a grey and black dog on Longfield Rd. Sunday afternoon while he was riding his bike.

Car window smashed

The rear passenger window in a car parked at a Fifth Line home was smashed Friday night. Damage is estimated at $300.

Knife taken from van

A Swiss Army knife, manual and ownership were taken from a van parked at a Jason Cr. home Thursday.
