Eleanor's parents were married on October 6th, so therefore this date was chosen by the bride. The bride's sister Joyce Parker was Matron of Honour and Carl Currie was Best Man for the groom, Yoshi, Eleanor's little dog was also an attendant at the wedding and he was dressed in an attire for the Wedding day. The reception for a number of their friends was held in the church basement, put on by Eleanor's good friend Barb Bauer and helpers. The Bride wore a white wedding gown and her going away outfit was a sea-foam green pant suit with beige accessories. The Bride was given in marriage by a good friend Rod Finnie and organist was Kersi Finnie. The ceremony was performed by Reverend Peter Barrow. If tears could build a stairway
And heartaches make a lane.
We would walk a path to Heaven
And bring you home again
And Lord if there are roses in Heaven
Please pick a bunch with care
Place them in both her arms
And tell her we will always care.
Always loved, sadly missed
My & Jim & family
