

Norval celebrates local couple's anniversary

By Lois Rooney-Giurin
Norval news

Anita and Romesh Dhir would like to thank everyone who gave them a gift at their Silver Anniversary party on October 14. The good news is that they had lots of help unwrapping the presents. The bad news is that because they had lots of help unwrapping presents, the cards and presents became hopelessly mixed up, and Anita has a pile of cards and a number of presents and no idea who gave what. The Dhirs would like to sincerely thank everyone for their generosity and apologize for the mix up. The gifts were truly appreciated.

Church celebration

Union Presbyterian Church's Celebration on Sunday, October 29 was very well received. If you missed it, watch this space for information on a similar evening which will be held in the new year. The offering of over $200 went to aid the flooding in Asia.

Shoes galore

Carrolle and Hank Golow of Winston Churchill Boulevard have left for their 26th trip to the Dominican Republic. They want to thank all those who generously donated shoes for their cause. The response was prompt and many folk helped them to make a difference for the people of the Dominican Republic. Thanks so much.

Ruby is remembered

Condolences to the family of Ruby Bond, who died on October 25.

Mrs. Bond is remembered by the Bond family, Les, Mary, Adam and Mary-El of Noble Street. A memorial service was held on October 27.

Holy Cross CWL names bazaar winners

Holy Cross Catholic Women's League (CWL) annual bazaar on Saturday, Oct. 21 was a huge success, and draw winners were: L. Hardstaff who won the quilt made by Siena vanHoekelen, M. Sheppard won the second prize and M. Gils took home the third prize.

Appreciation goes to CWL members, Knights of Columbus members and community members who assisted Anne Clarke, convener.
