Georgetown Seniors Centre

Well prepared! Well served! Well attended! The Georgetown Seniors Centre is praising the ladies (and gentlemen) of June Gilson's group for the great meal at our November luncheon: baked ham, scalloped potatoes, peas and fruit cocktail were on the menu. For their efforts the group received a rousing ovation.

Nov. 4 raised well over $4,300 for the seniors centre. A big thank you to all who in any way contributed to this successful event. It was estimated that approximately 450 attended. Our Millennium tickets were all sold and the winners were: Roberta Thompson, weekend in Niagara; Marion Faulkner, dinner show at Stage West; Tony Farrello, $75 Canadian Tire gift certificate. The puppy dog tickets were also sold out. Winners were Andrea Van de Valk, Mrs. Cellis and Kathy Allen. Turkey Draw winners were Ethel MacEachern, Marg Emmer-son, and Joyce Tilson. Rein Pater, our past-president was actually the first winner but graciously returned his prize to be drawn again. Thanks Rein. In the 50/50 draw Jean Anderson took home $83.50.

For months the ladies craft group have been selling tickets on a beautiful homemade quilt. Mildred Blackett was the winner. For their efforts the craft group turned in $2,553 to the centre. Great job ladies. Watch for news on the next quilt draw.

Tickets for our annual Christmas dinner are now on sale for members only at $17 each. You will be treated to a full turkey dinner at the centre on Tuesday, Dec. 5 at noon.

Due to unforeseen circumstances Men's Nite Out on Monday, Nov. 20 has been cancelled. However we urge you to come out on Thursday, Nov. 23 at 6:45 p.m. to a Men's and Ladies' Nite.

On Tuesday, Nov. 21 at 2 p.m., a seminar on seniors housing in Halton Hills will be held at the centre. Speakers are Doug Christensen and John Day. All are welcome.

We are promoting a fairly new group, Bid Euchre Players. Bid euchre falls somewhere between euchre and bridge and is a very challenging game. If you like to learn more, call Joan Hoffman, 877-7778 or come to the centre Mondays at 1 p.m.

Our Tree Trimming, Christmas Trivia Contest and Sing-along will be held Tuesday, Nov. 28, 1 p.m.
