Dauids sparks Blue Fins

Ricky Dauids swept all six of his events to win the boys 10-12 high point trophy at the Oakville 2nd Annual Fall Classic.

Dauids set four provincial qualifying times in his victories. His times in the freestyle (34.12 seconds in the 50m and 1:14.97 in the 100m) were both personal bests. He also met the provincial qualifying time in the 50m breaststroke (46.75 seconds) and the 200m breaststroke (3:33.09).

Dauids other two victories were in the 200m individual medley and the 100m breaststroke.

Dauids also helped the 10-and-under boys 200m freestyle relay team finish second. Kris Neimeier, Michael Rowan and Rory Cadwallader were the other members of that team.

Andrea Willson had a pair of victories in the 11-12 girls 50m backstroke and the 50m breaststroke. Both were personal best times.

In the girls 15-and-over division, Caroline Main won the 50m butterfly and was second in the 50m backstroke while Kate Chapman was first in the 50m breaststroke and third in the 200m butterfly.

Peter Niemeier won the 11-12 boys 50m backstroke in a personal best time of 41.82 seconds. Rory Switzer was first in the 13-14 boys 50m backstroke. Lee Anne Bruce won the 13-14 girls 50m backstroke.

Other top finishers from the meet were:

10-and-Under Boys: Rory Cadwallader (third, 200m free); Kris Neimeier (third, 50m back). 11-12 Boys: Jamie Farrar (second, 50m back); Karl Zebarth (third, 50m fly); 200m free relay, third (Farrar, Peter Neimeier, Zebarth, Geordan Cadwallader); 200m medley relay, third (Mark Gorski, Tyler Stanley, Zebarth, Cadwallader). 13-14 Boys: Chris Henderson (second, 200 free, 100 back, third 50m back, 50m free); Greg Demand (second, 50m back); Ryan Beauchesne (third, 50m back).

11-12 Girls: Jessica Stuart (second, 50m back, 50m fly); Marnie Demand (third, 50m back); Chandra Massey (third, 50m breast). 15-and-over Girls: (second, 50m fly).

Impact claim Essex tourney title

Although only two members remain from last year's Ontario Volleyball Association champions, the Georgetown Impact are not about to surrender the provincial title.

With 11 rookies it may look like a rebuilding year for the bantam squad. Instead, they appear intent on keeping the title for a third straight year.

With five of last year's top six teams entered in the OVA Provincial Cup tournament in Essex, the Impact overcame the strong field to down the hosts in a three-set final.

Led by the serving of J.J. Edwards, who along with Casey Ferguson is the only returning player, the Impact opened up a commanding 18-8 lead in the opening game. They fended off an Essex comeback for a 25-19 victory. Game two saw Essex dominating in the service game and it took a 16-9 advantage. The Impact rallied to tie the game at 23 but Essex forced a deciding game with a 25-

23 victory. The deciding game saw the Impact take a 9-4 lead en route to a 15-9 victory.

Georgetown sailed through the round-robin undefeated, rolling over Cambridge 25-4, 25-9; defeating Waterdown 25-12, 25-11 and topping Windsor Northshore 25-15, 25-10.

In the quarterfinals the Impact triumphed over Chatham 25-16 and got their biggest test from the 12th seeded Waterdown in a 25-19, 25-20 semifinal victory.

The Impact restocked with a strong corps from Centennial. In addition to Edwards, Megan Sproule, Lindsey Rigby, Katelyn Gingras, Laura Collins and Kelly Haines are all from the Georgetown middle school. The team was rounded out by Milton's Maddi Rundle and Katherine Greaves from W.I. Dick and Tammy Merritt and Calley Robinson from Sam Sherritt, Ferguson from St. Francis in Georgetown and Alex Wilson and Jessica Stanley from Brookville.

Morrow rising through ranks— with a Bullet

Katie Morrow is making a habit of bettering herself.

A member of the Bramalea Bullets running club, Morrow turned in a strong showing at the provincial championships in the Guelph at the end of October, placing 17th. Then at the national meet at Etobicoke's Centennial Park, Morrow managed to improve her standing by moving up four places to 13th.

Morrow joined the Bullets this year after some strong finishes at local meets. She trains every Wednesday with the club and usually runs every day on her own.

Morrow's improvement in placings was nothing new. She finished second at the Optimist Cross Country Meet in Georgetown and at the North Halton Elementary School meet. But a few days after the North Halton event she won the Halton meet.

"One girl kept beating me so I thought she'd come first again," the Grade 5 student at Harrison Public School said.

Morrow staged a late charge passing her rival about 30 seconds from the finish line and held her off for the victory.

Athletes of the Week

 HOLLY GODDARD	 MARK CHUMLEY	 CYNTHIA ARNOLD	 SCOTT ALLISON

The Acton High School Athletes of the Week are Holly Goddard and Mark Chumley.

Goddard, a forward on the junior Redmen basketball team, was chosen for being top rebounder on the team.

Chumley, a power on the senior Redmen volleyball team, was selected for helping win the OFSAA qualifier against Aldershot.

Georgetown District High School Athletes of the Week are Cynthia Arnold and Scott Allison.

Arnold, a forward on the senior Rebels basketball team was honoured for her strong defense in the team's first playoff game.

Allison, a right side on the senior Rebels volleyball team, was chosen for helping the team qualify for the Haltons with great offensive work.
