Georgetown Alliance Church presents Toronto musical

Georgetown Alliance Church presents the Brookstone Performing Arts' production of 2000 Candles on Saturday, Dec. 9 at 8 p.m.

Recommended for ages 8 and up, 2000 Candles is celebration of the 2000th birthday of Christ, featuring the best songs and stories from centuries of Christmas traditions.

Brookstone director Tom Carson calls the production, "Christmas Unplugged."

"2000 Candles will have a warm acoustic take on the classic carols and include some of the best contemporary songs and stories too," he said.

During the evening, the play journeys back and forth between historical traditions and present day life, until it arrives at ground zero: year zero. The show includes musicians, actors, dancers and singers, with production designs by Shaw and Blyth festivals-experienced designers.

A Toronto company, Brookstone's mandate is to reconnect the arts with spiritual experience. They are touring while continuing to offer shows in downtown Toronto [(416) 922-1238 or brookstonetheatre.com].

For tickets to the Georgetown show call 873-0249. Tickets are $10 per person and the show will be performed at the church, located at 290 Main St. S. (Eighth Line).

Writers' group hosts workshop

The Georgetown Writers Circle, the West Side Writers Coalition and the Mississauga Public Library present a workshop, Revising and Editing for Fiction Writers, on Saturday, Nov. 25, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Mississauga Central Library, 301 Burnhamthorpe Rd., W.

Workshop leader Brian Henry will help writers learn how to find and fix flaws in plot, structure, characterization and style. The cost will be $33; advance registration only. Call Beverly Blake, 877-8251.
