Norval is ready to host Montgomery Christmas

By Lois ROONEY-GIURIN
Norval news

It's here again! The village of Norval is busily preparing for its annual Montgomery Christmas celebration. The big day is tomorrow (Saturday), and there are lots of exciting activities planned.

Norval Anglican Church is holding its annual bazaar at the parish hall from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m. Many activities are planned, and lots of lovely things will be available for purchase. Lunch will be served.

Norval Presbyterian Church's annual bake and craft sale is from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. at the church. The crafters have been working very hard to bring you a large selection of crafts and baking. Lunch or tea will be served in the manse at 10:30 a.m., noon and 1:30 p.m. Tickets are available at the craft sale.

Norval United Church annual Christmas bazaar is from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. at the church and the newly-purchased heritage house adjacent to the church. Enjoy the crafts, baking, treasures, farmers' market and children's tables. Stay for lunch! Keep your ears peeled for the brass band who will be roaming the streets of Norval.

Canoe Country is hosting the Ontario Wood Carvers' Association. There will be demonstrations and displays and some items available for sale. Don't miss harper Anneliese Cameron who will be performing from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. at the store.

For more information about all of the events at Montgomery Christmas 2000, visit www.canoe-country.com and enter the Montgomery Christmas Web site.
