Globe wins six THEAs

Georgetown Globe's production of West Side Story garnered a record six awards at the annual Association of Community Theatres for Central Ontario gala awards night held in Toronto Saturday.

West Side Story, which ran last fall at the John Elliott Theatre, was completing for the THEAs, against five other regional musicals.

Globe won the coveted Best Musical award, picked up by producer Michael Domet.

Joe Gomes won Best Director for his "dark" version of the play. Also winners were Cheri Lindsay-Jarvis (Best Choreographer), Gerry Andrew (Best Set Design) and Chris Rosser (Best Lighting Design). The show also won Best Technical Achievement.

West Side Story was also nominated in categories of Best Male Lead (David Brock as Riff) and Best Female Lead (Graziella Mastrangelo as Maria), but both lost in a close race.

Award winner Domet now turns his attention as musical director to Globe's next production, Kiss Me Kate while Lindsay-Jarvis returns as choreographer.

Kiss Me Kate runs May 3-12 at the John Elliott Theatre. Call the box office, (905) 877-3700 for tickets.
