

Community Care Access Centre (CCAC) of Halton Vacancies on the Board of Directors

If you are a resident of Halton looking for a challenging and rewarding volunteer opportunity, have a minimum of twelve to fifteen hours available a month, and feel you have some of the skills and experience required to govern a growing organization, the Community Care Access Centre (CCAC) of Halton would like to hear from you. Residents of Halton are invited to submit an application to fill vacancies on the Board of Directors.

The CCAC is dedicated to providing ease of access to high quality consumer focused community, personal support and health care services. The Board is responsible for the overall management of a budget in excess of $32 million annually. The CCAC provides access to a range of long-term care services including nursing, homemaking, rehabilitation, and placement into long-term care facilities. It also provides information about other related community services.

- Your skills and experience in one or several of the following areas would be an asset:
- A user (or past user) of the service(s) as a client or a family caregiver
 - Prior experience as a board member, preferably of a non-profit organization
 - Strategic planning experience
 - An understanding of the health care system and issues affecting health care delivery today
 - An interest in ensuring further development of health and social services
 - Comfortable working with, and have empathy for individuals and community groups

Appointments are made for a term of three years. It is a Board of governance, not of management. The CEO is responsible for implementation within Board prescribed limitations. To avoid conflict of interest, people directly associated with agencies or organizations that have or hope to have service or supply contracts with the CCAC, and people who operate long-term care facilities, are not eligible to be Board Members of the CCAC.

The deadline for applications is April 30, 2001.

Letters of application, including a resume and a statement of why you are interested in becoming a Board Member should be sent to: Mrs. Bette Martin, Chair, Nominations Committee
Community Care Access Centre of Halton
440 Elizabeth St., 4th Floor
Burlington ON L7R 2M1
