Guide to the Outdoors

Julie Pomeroy

EARTH DAY, Sunday, April 22. Don't you think Earth Day should be Every Day in Halton Hills! We all want to be healthy. An easy place to start is in our own back yards. Try gardening this year without pesticides. A lawn that looks like a putting green is quickly going out of style as we learn that using pesticides to do it, puts children, pets, birds and other wildlife at risk and these chemicals also pollute our water. (City of Toronto www.city.toronto.on.ca/parks/healthy-lawn) There are many resources to help you get started. Call or email me and I would be happy to give you a list. "You know that when wildlife and the environment thrive, so do humans." Colin Maxwell, Canadian Wildlife Federation. Check out this great website. www.earthday.ca

Brit singer Harvey Andrews to perform in Norval

Harvey Andrews, a Birmingham-born folk singer, is making his first appearance in Halton Hills with a concert at St. Paul's Parish Hall in Norval, tomorrow, April 21.

Andrews has recorded 11 CDs and is frequently featured on Prime Time Radio's Calling All Britons, as well as various CBC programs.

Growing up during the Second World War, Andrews writes songs on the post-war years as well as contemporary situations.

Tickets cost $15 and can be reserved by calling 905-873-8261.

Sandra & Daniel

Brian Corkum & Maurine Smibert of Vancouver, B.C. take pleasure in announcing the engagement of their daughter, Sandra Lynn Corkum to Daniel James Koroscil, son of Michael and Dianne Koroscil of Georgetown, Ontario.

Wedding to take place in Maui, November 8, 2001.

Congratulations to the Happy Couple from both families.

Tickets are on sale now for Songs for Hope III

Songs for Hope III, a fund-raising concert to benefit childhood cancer research at The Hospital for Sick Children, will be held at the Ballinafad Community Centre on Saturday, April 28.

This third annual concert is hosted by Wendi and Hugh Hunter who for the past two years, have put on this concert in memory of their daughter Emma.

"So far, the community has helped us contribute over $2,000 to aid in childhood cancer research at the Hospital for Sick Children in Toronto," said Hugh Hunter. "My daughter Emma spent her two years and nine months living in Crewson's Corners and many local people knew of her and her courageous battle with cancer."

The format for this family concert has been changed slightly this year. A lasagna dinner will be held before the concert (6-7:30 p.m.) and ticket buyers can choose to attend the dinner and concert or the show only (starting at 7:30 p.m.).

A cash bar will be open throughout the evening and dinner music will be provided by Brent Cooper, Kelly Trafford and friends.

New this year is star attraction Danny Bakan, a comical and popular folk-styled entertainer who performs at festivals and happenings across Canada.

Complementing Bakan's performance is the popular local band New Classic Folk to get things started off on a high note.

Children are very welcome and each performer will include music for the kids to sing along with.

Light homemade snacks, beer, wine and soft drinks will be available throughout the evening.

Tickets for the dinner and show is $15 adults; $10 for children between the ages of five and 13 and it's free for children under five.

Show only tickets are $10 adults; $5 for children (ages to 13) and it's still free for kids under five.

The Ballinafad Community Centre is located on 32 Sideroad, near Trafalgar Rd. N.

For more information and tickets contact: Wendi or Hugh Hunter, (519) 853-1383 or e-mail: lhunter@stn.net

NOW PROVE IT

After 40, it gets harder to see up close.
 It's a natural condition called presbyopia. Regular visits to the eye doctor can keep things in focus.
