

Blithe Spirit begins run

Charles (Brian Banyard) and his wife Ruth (Carol Beauchamp) experience the gamut of emotions as they square off in Georgetown Little Theatre's upcoming comedy Blythe Spirit, in which Charles seems to have quite a time keeping his wives alive. The play opened Thursday at John Elliott Theatre and continues tonight (Friday), tomorrow (a Gala Night) and April 25-28. For tickets call the box office at 877-3700.

Georgetown Legion ladies help buy Talking Books

At the last general meeting of the Branch 120 Georgetown Legion Ladies Auxiliary, Margaret Felyce, Extended Services Co-ordinator for the Halton Hills Library, accepted a donation from Branch 120 Legion and its Ladies Auxiliary (LA). President Harry Archer, and LA President Jean Harley presented a $1,000 cheque to be used for the purchase of Talking Books for the Blind.

Felyce takes the library out to people who cannot come into the library. As the population ages, more of these books are required. Our donations are greatly appreciated.

Two teams represented our auxiliary at district cribbage in Hamilton. The team of Ceile Reid, Lynn Lafleur, Ruby Bailey and Jean Narey placed sixth and they will go to Smith Falls in June for the Provincials.

Two of our dart teams have advanced to District. Eleanor Hurren, Jean Harley, Ruby Bailey and Ceile Reid as well as Sheila Hicks, Marion McGugan, Marjorie Tutty and Lynn Lafleur will travel to Waterford for district darts. Congratulations ladies, and good luck in district.

We have had a very successful year in sports. Thank you to sports officer Sheila Hicks for her hard work co-ordinating and arranging all these weekends.

An application for membership from Christina Shand was received and approved. Kim Sheppard, our new member, was initiated and welcomed in the usual manner.

A special thank you to comrade Helen Tomkinson, a longtime

Bach Chorale prepares for festival's gala

Tickets are still available for the final two concerts of the Sounds of Spring Festival, hosted by the Georgetown Bach Chorale.

On Sunday (April 22), 3 p.m. at St. John's United Church, Spanish pianist Carlos Gallardo Riballo and Georgetown pianist Ronald D. Greidanus will perform Johannes Brahms' Neue Liebeslieder together with eight members of the Bach Chorale and soprano Jane Archibald.

Then on Saturday, April 28, the various ensembles and soloists that have performed throughout the festival will gather at 7:30 p.m. in St. John's for a final entertaining evening.

Ticket prices are $15 per concert. Tickets can be obtained at: Sweet Designs, 905-877-0639; Travel Hut, 905-873-6200; Time Pieces, 905-873-8980 or Williams Mill Art Gallery, 905-873-8203.

member of the Auxiliary. Helen carried colours for us for many years but has decided to retire and let someone else perform this duty. Again, thank you Helen for all your years of service.

Sincere sympathy is extended to friends and family of our late comrade Mary Harley.

The Auxiliary will be very busy with banquets beginning the end of April through May. If you can volunteer any of your time to help, please contact Amy Hole at 877-4605.

The Spring Fling will take place on Friday, April 27. Cocktails at 6:30 p.m., buffet dinner at 7:30 p.m. Music and karaoke by Jewels. Door prizes galore. For tickets call 877-0618, $12 per person.
