POLICE BLOTTER

Man falls off roof

A 33-year-old Toronto man received non-life threatening injuries when he fell 20 feet from the roof of a house under construction on North Ridge Cr. in Georgetown Wednesday morning.

The man was taken to Georgetown Hospital. The Ministry of Labour is investigating the accident.

Impaired driving charge

A Brampton man was charged with impaired driving, having over 80 mg of alcohol in 100 ml of blood and drive while disqualified after police stopped a vehicle at Steeles Ave. and Trafalgar Rd. early Tuesday. Charged is Peter Baker, 27, of Horton Cr.

Bicycle stolen from garage

A $300 Free Agent Alluder bicycle was stolen from a detached garage at a Mill St. E. home some time late Monday or early Tuesday.

Generators hot

Two Honda generators, valued at $1,800, were taken from a garage at an Ostrander Blvd. home some time between Saturday and Tuesday.

Lack of response

Police were called to Halton Flour Milling in Acton Tuesday evening because a man had received a cut to his nose and face when he was struck with a beer bottle. The victim, 40, of Georgetown, declined to provide information to police on how the incident occurred.

Canoe stolen

A 16-foot fiberglass canoe, valued at $200, was taken from a Cameron St. shed sometime between April 9 and last Monday.
