On their toes

Jennifer Palichuk (left) and Chantelle Evans, both 16, recently achieved a command level at the Royal Academy of Dance (RAD) exams. The exam is the first mandatory exam required for entry to many university dance programs and a prerequisite for obtaining RAD teacher qualifications. Under instruction by Yvonne Oldaker of Halton Hills School of Dance, the girls have been dancing since age 4, and are now rehearsing for their leads in the production of Labyrinth, June 8 to 10 at the John Elliott Theatre.
