655 In memoriam

ROSHIER, Herbert (Red). April 27, 1994 We often sit and think of him when we are all alone. For memory is the only friend that grief can call its own; Like ivy on the withered oak, when all other things decay, Our love for him will still keep green and never fade away. Love Jean, Gene, Kelly, Ahren, Gay and Glenn.

660 Card of thanks

CARTER - The family of the late Albert Carter wish to thank friends and relatives for the cards, flowers, donations to the Liver Foundation and other charitable organizations, in loving memory of Albert, also to the J.S. Jones & Son Funeral Home directors for their kind assistance. The understanding shown was very much appreciated. Thank you to Reverend Peter Barrow who officiated at the service for his comforting words, to the members of the Toy Soldier's Club, where Albert spent so many happy hours and companionship in the craft, and your heart warming tributes paid to Albert; to the presence of the Piper who piped Albert on his way to be with the Lord. Thanks also to the Rebecca Ladies for the delicious lunch. All these kindnesses will never be forgotten.

Dorothy Carter
 Francis Carter and Ann,
 John, Jo-Anne and Dolly Carter

CF FUND RAISER - We would like to express our heartfelt thanks to each of the individuals and businesses that helped to make our 2nd. Annual CF Dinner and Dance a tremendous success. Special thanks to: Lynne and Tom Bradshaw for their incredible dedication to CF, to North Halton Golf & Country Club, Emerald Isle, Hollis & Assoc., Roos Travel, The Kinsman, Adamson Spa and Salon, Bell Mobility, Bob and Mary Wands, and Signature Authentics. Thank you also to Ken and Sherrill Irwin for all your efforts in coordinating the garage sale for CF on Saturday April 28th. Your kindness and generosity will hopefully help make the dream of a cure for CF a reality. Fondly, Shelley and Nigel Phipps, Gail Bancroft and Steven Bain.

CLARK - The family of the late Joyce Clark would like to express our sincere thanks to relatives, friends, neighbours and colleagues for their many acts of kindness, floral tributes, charitable donations and expressions of sympathy show to us at the passing or our Mum and Grandma. Thanks to the Halton Hills Ambulance Service, and Emergency/ICU staff at Georgetown Hospital and McMaster Medical Centre. Thanks also to Jones Funeral Home for their thoughtfulness and assistance. Thanks to Rev. Peter Barrow for his kind words at the service and burial.

Peter, Paul, Lynn, Helen & families.

SEIFRIED - My sincerest thanks to the great nurses in I.C.U., especially Jo and John, and to everyone for their kindness and understanding when my brother-in-law passed away during my stay. I am also deeply indebted to Dr. Browning for his excellent care.

Albert Seifried
