

Bike-A-Thon rolls to record $15,000

Community Living North Halton's 11th annual Bike-a-Thon was held Sunday at the Georgetown Fairgrounds and a total of 215 riders turned out to raise a record $15,000. (Left) A thrilled Bonnie Downey of Georgetown raised more than $1,000 in pledges and was awarded a new bicycle from Ollie Tuchel of Ollie's Cycle and Ski. (Right) Threeyear-old David Neely of Georgetown, who was there to support his cousin in the ride, puts the pedal to the metal on his tricycle. Funds raised from the 11kilometre ride go towards funding a variety of projects for the developmentally disabled.
