

Riverfest 2001—village festival celebrates life on Credit River

Come celebrate Mother's Day— Sunday, May 13— at Riverfest 2001 in Norval.

This annual event celebrates living by the Credit River with a variety of life's simple pleasures. Riverfest festivities begin at 10 a.m. and finish at 5 p.m.

Families can picnic in McNab Park, east of Holly-wood Tavern, and take walks along the river. The Norval Community Association and Maple Lodge Farms are putting on a chicken barbecue, 10:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the park and there will be a unique vendor's market, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. that will include local artists.

There will be horse and carriage rides between 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Call 905-846-5000 to book a time.

Professional fly fisherman Don Whiting will offer free lessons on a first come-first serve basis by the Credit River in McNab Park, noon to 4 p.m. Book signings by Kevin Callan whose latest book, Gone Canoeing, includes an interesting chapter on paddling the Credit River will be held noon to 2 p.m. Other authors and guests expected to attend include Bonnie McTaggart, author of The Wilderness Cookbook and Donna Steele, Wilderness Guide for Women; Ron Barr, a representative for Mountain Safety Research and Lowe Alpine Packs; Julie Skirving, representative for Burt's Bees Products; Peter Mogenson, chainsaw carver, and members of the Ontario Woodcarvers.

Members of the Halton Hills Fire Department will demonstrate a cold water river rescue at 12:30 p.m. in the Credit River beside Canoe Country.

A new attraction for Riverfest this year will be a 24-foot high rock climbing wall in the Hollywood Tavern parking lot, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Sparky's DJ and Dave Hadfield (brother of Canadian astronaut Chris Hadfield), a songwriter and musician, will provide music throughout the day, noon to 4 p.m. in Willow Park pavilion. Children's activities between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. include crafts, storytelling and more.

Also in Willow Park, between 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. Mountsberg Wildlife Centre will show birds of prey and Wye Marsh Conservation is back again this year, 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. with their snakes and amphibians.

Jack Imhof, an aquatic ecologist, will help kids learn about critters in the river and Ontario Streams will put on an electrofishing demonstration. Boris from Bushwhacker Magazine will have a tent display and you can meet members of local clubs like the Halton/North Peel Naturalists and the Bruce Trail Association.

Much more is going on so check out the map and event schedule at Canoe Country in Norval. Details are listed on the Riverfest page at www.canoe-country.com.

The public can support Willow Park Ecology Centre with the purchase of a pin that focuses on the Riverfest theme. "The Credit River, Protect It For Life" pin is included with an appreciated $4 entrance donation for adults and $2 for children to the ecology centre.
