

A head's up play

Ian Boileau of the Acton Redmen leaps to head the ball down field in Thursday's junior boys soccer game against Bishop Reding. Mario Sabatini scored twice to lead Bishop Reding to a 6-1 win. Jason Beatty scored the lone Acton goal.

Eagles clip Milton 12-1

Adam Slessor, Shawn Dunsmore and Justin Miil combined on a two-hitter as the Georgetown Major Peewee Eagles rolled over Milton 12-1.

Dunsmore allowed only one hit in two innings of work to earn the win and helped himself by scoring three runs and driving in two more. Justin Miil worked one inning of no-hit ball and smacked a pair of doubles, including a drive off the left field fence in the Eagles' three-run sixth inning. Slessor finished things up by striking out four, walking none and giving up only one hit in three innings of work.

The Eagles led 2-1 until Brett Neumann's two-run, bases-loaded single sparked a five-run Eagle rally in the fourth inning.

The Eagles doubled Milton 4-2 in the season opener. Dunsmore, Brandon Stewart and Matthew Scott combined on a one-hitter. Dunsmore again earned the victory with three innings of no-hit ball with five strikeouts and no walks.

Scott went 3-for-4 including a triple and Miil had an RBI-double.
