Lockwood claims silver for local gym club

Chloe Lockwood earned three medals, including the all-around silver, at the Ontario Gymnastics Championships in Sudbury.

The Halton Hills Gymnastics Club member won the gold on vault in the Pre-Novice 1 Division and a bronze on beam. She was also seventh on floor and 10th on bars in a field of 41 gymnasts. Her performance helped the Central Region team place second in the division in the team competition.

Georgetown gymnasts Megan Rowland was fourth overall at the senior level Ontario Gymnastics Championship at Seneca College.

Rowland, competing in the Senior 3 Division for the Markham-based Winstonettes, earned a silver medal on bars and was seventh on beam. Rowland was the top qualifier for the Metro East team based on her performance in the three qualifiers leading up to provincials. The Metro East team finished second.

Erin Smith and Lisa Etchells of the Halton Hills Gymnastics Club also competed at the senior provincials for the Central Region team.
