

Just say no, Sheila

Sheila Copps for Prime Minister? Please say it ain't so. "Nobody's baby" hasn't been the least bit interesting since John Crosbie left politics.

Tequila Sheila's biggest claim to fame is the fact she has trouble telling little white lies. Remember when she promised to quit if the Liberals didn't scrap the GST? Well, she stepped down, polled her riding, discovered the happy idiots, er, voters of Hamilton East loved her anyway, then got re-elected.

Nothing like standing by your convictions, huh Sheila?

Since then Steeltown's favourite daughter has been busy handing out Canadian flags and...and...that's about it.

Now she wants to move into Sussex Drive.

Surely, if the Liberals want to beat the bushes for a successor to Jean Poutine and not have Paul Martin fall out they could do better. And, if they insist on a female candidate, I offer up the following half dozen:

Pamela Anderson: Yes, she's Canadian and yes, she may be the quintessential "dumb blonde". But, consider this. Anderson has managed to make $200 gazillion promoting the only two assets she has. So how dumb is she?

Kim Campbell: Er, scratch that idea. Been there. Done that. It didn't work.

Alannis Morrisette: Imagine having back to back prime ministers who the public can't understand. Wouldn't it be ironic?

Shania Twain: If we want Canada to have a bigger world profile Shania's our choice. Imagine the leaders of the world are gathered for a summit. Would Bush, Blair or Putin get more attention than the Timmins Teaser?

Hazel McCallion: Garnering the immigrant vote could be a problem.

Josef Chouinard: The ex-figure skating queen may not know much about politics but her penchant for falling down would keep things interesting.

Dis 'n Data

Bad voice mail message #1: "Hi, Mr. McGhie this is Elnfaalclorobrn. Could you please call me back." Enunciate, people, enunciate....Don't you wish our immigration department was as tough on drug dealers and criminals as it was on the Sklarzyk family of Mississauga who were sent back to Poland this past weekend? Their "crime" was working hard and being honest...Bad voice mail message #2: "Hi, Mr. McGhie. You had a picture in the paper last week and I would like to get a copy. My telephone number is 33521." Methinks this caller isn't only missing a couple numbers, but a few brain cells....Exactly what is left standing in Jerusalem?... Making cell phone use while driving illegal sounds nice, but won't it be tough to enforce? Won't people just put the phone down for a second if they see a cop?... Things may be rosy in the Toronto sports world right now, but don't expect it to last long. Leaf goalie Curtis Joseph is 35, Vince Carter is a year away from bolting the Raptors and the Blue Jays are drawing crowds of 14,000 on a good day.

Trunk sale returns

The popular Acton Trunk Sale drew large crowds recently as it kicked off its seventh season at its new location on Queen Street. Among the vendors on hand were Heather Sampson, Rebecca Sampson, 8, and Paula Paul who were offering shih tzu puppies for sale. The trunk sale is held every Saturday from 8:30 a.m.- 12:30 p.m. until October. Photo by Eve Martin

Police seek man who helped fire victims

Halton Police are attempting to find the man who helped a Milton family escape uninjured from their burning home on Trafalgar Rd. south of Derry Rd. last Wednesday morning.

Detective Sgt. Jackie Gordon said police want to acknowledge the man's good deed, and unfortunately the family did not get the man's name.

He is asked to call Detective Const. Ray Bruce at (905) 878-5511 ext. 2268.
