Third annual Show 'N Shine set for next weekend

Leathertown will become Car Town next weekend when Show 'N Shine 2001 comes to Acton.

The third annual show will be held Saturday, July 28 at Prospect Park in Acton. Admission and parking are free.

The show, which runs from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., will feature cars, trucks, motorcycles as well as an open division for highway trucks (no trailers), snowmobiles, farm tractors and boats.

Anyone wishing to enter a vehicle can preregister for $5 by calling 519-853-0565 or by sending e-mail to actoncruise@aztec-net.com. Exhibitors can also register on the day of the show for $7.50.

Organizers are looking for cars both old and new as well as racing, stock, custom and drag cars. In the motorcycle category they are looking for American, British, racing and cruising bikes.

Among the categories that will be judged are best hot rod, best muscle car, best truck or van, best classic, best historical and special interest.

Motorcycles classes include best custom, best original and best bike.

The special sports category will cover a wide range of vehicles including ATV, lawn tractors, personal watercraft, snowmobiles and boats.

Vehicles from all classes will also be eligible to win Best of Show, Ladies Choice and Best Paint Job awards.

Freelance automotive journalist Bill Vance, author of Automotive History Vol. 1 & 2, will be on hand.

Lawrence Hacking of Acton will also be there with the bike he used to complete the Paris to Dakar Rally

There will also be lawn and garden tractor pulls.

Live entertainment will be provided by Larry Melton and Fire and Water.

There will be 50/50 draws, door prizes and a raffle table.

Proceeds from Show 'N Shine will go to the Acton Agricultural Society's building fund.

For more information about the show, check the Web site www.aztec-net.com/~acton_cruise.
