SHANNON, David (May 4, 1946 - July 31, 2000) In loving memory of a dear husband and father. A year ago today a great guy left us peacefully. He'd fought a war and lost the battle to cancer, forever winning the hearts of his family and friends with his courage. His gift to all of us was the twinkle in his eye and devilish grin that brightened our lives everyday. We think of him often and deeply regret that he's not here. However, his character is immortal and his timeless personality allows our memories never to fade. We will never take for granted the time God gave us with Dave. We really miss him.
 Judi,
 Mike & Leanne

 In memory of a dear son-in-law
 Silent the tears that fall
 Living our lives without you

 Those special years will not return

 But with the love within our hearts,
 You will walk with us forever.
