POLICE BLOTTER

Youngster approached

Halton Police report about 7:20 p.m. Monday a 12-year-old Georgetown boy was walking in the Ewing St. and Temple Rd. area when he was approached by a man driving a dark brown van who offered him a chocolate bar.

The man said he had three kinds of bars, and asked the boy to come in the van to choose one. The boy ran home.

Crowd pepper sprayed

Police used pepper spray to disperse a crowd of people and break up a fight between six males at a house party on 22 Sideroad early Saturday.

When officers arrived at the house they found about 150 people, many of them intoxicated. Police used the pepper spray after some of the crowd converged upon them when they attempted to break up the fight. No one was injured or charged.

Break-in suspects sought

Police are looking for two men in connection with a break-in into a 10 Sideroad home Sunday night.

About 6 p.m. a man who lives in the home heard a noise on the first floor, went to investigate, and found two men in the home. They fled in a 1988 blue Pontiac.

They were described as being of Mediterranean descent. One of them was 5'8", with a medium build, darker skin, shaved head, dark mustache and was wearing a muscle shirt and dark pants. Police had no further description of the other man.

Three vehicles stolen

A 1992 Ford, valued at $2,500, was taken from in front of Pizza Pizza on Guelph St. about 1 p.m. Tuesday. On Monday night a $9,000 1996 Chevrolet was stolen from a Maple Ave. apartment parking lot while earlier Monday a $4,000 1993 Ford pickup truck was stolen from a Windsor Rd. driveway.

Office closed for civic holiday

The Independent & Free Press office will be closed Monday, August 6 so staff can enjoy the civic holiday. The office will reopen Tuesday, Aug. 7 at 8:30 p.m.
