Fall rec brochure available Aug. 17

Feeling the summer heat? A great way to cool off is to start planning your recreational activities for the fall season.

Watch for the 2001-2002 Town of Halton Hills Fall and Winter Community Activity and Service Guide to be distributed to residents beginning Aug. 17. One can also be picked up at any town facility such as the Civic Centre, libraries, pools and arenas.

This issue features many opportunities for leisure activities as well as information on municipal and community services offered by the town and other service providers.

The lottery deadline for fall aquatic and community program registrations is Wednesday, Sept. 5 at noon.

There is a separate winter lottery deadline so winter registrations are processed at a later date.

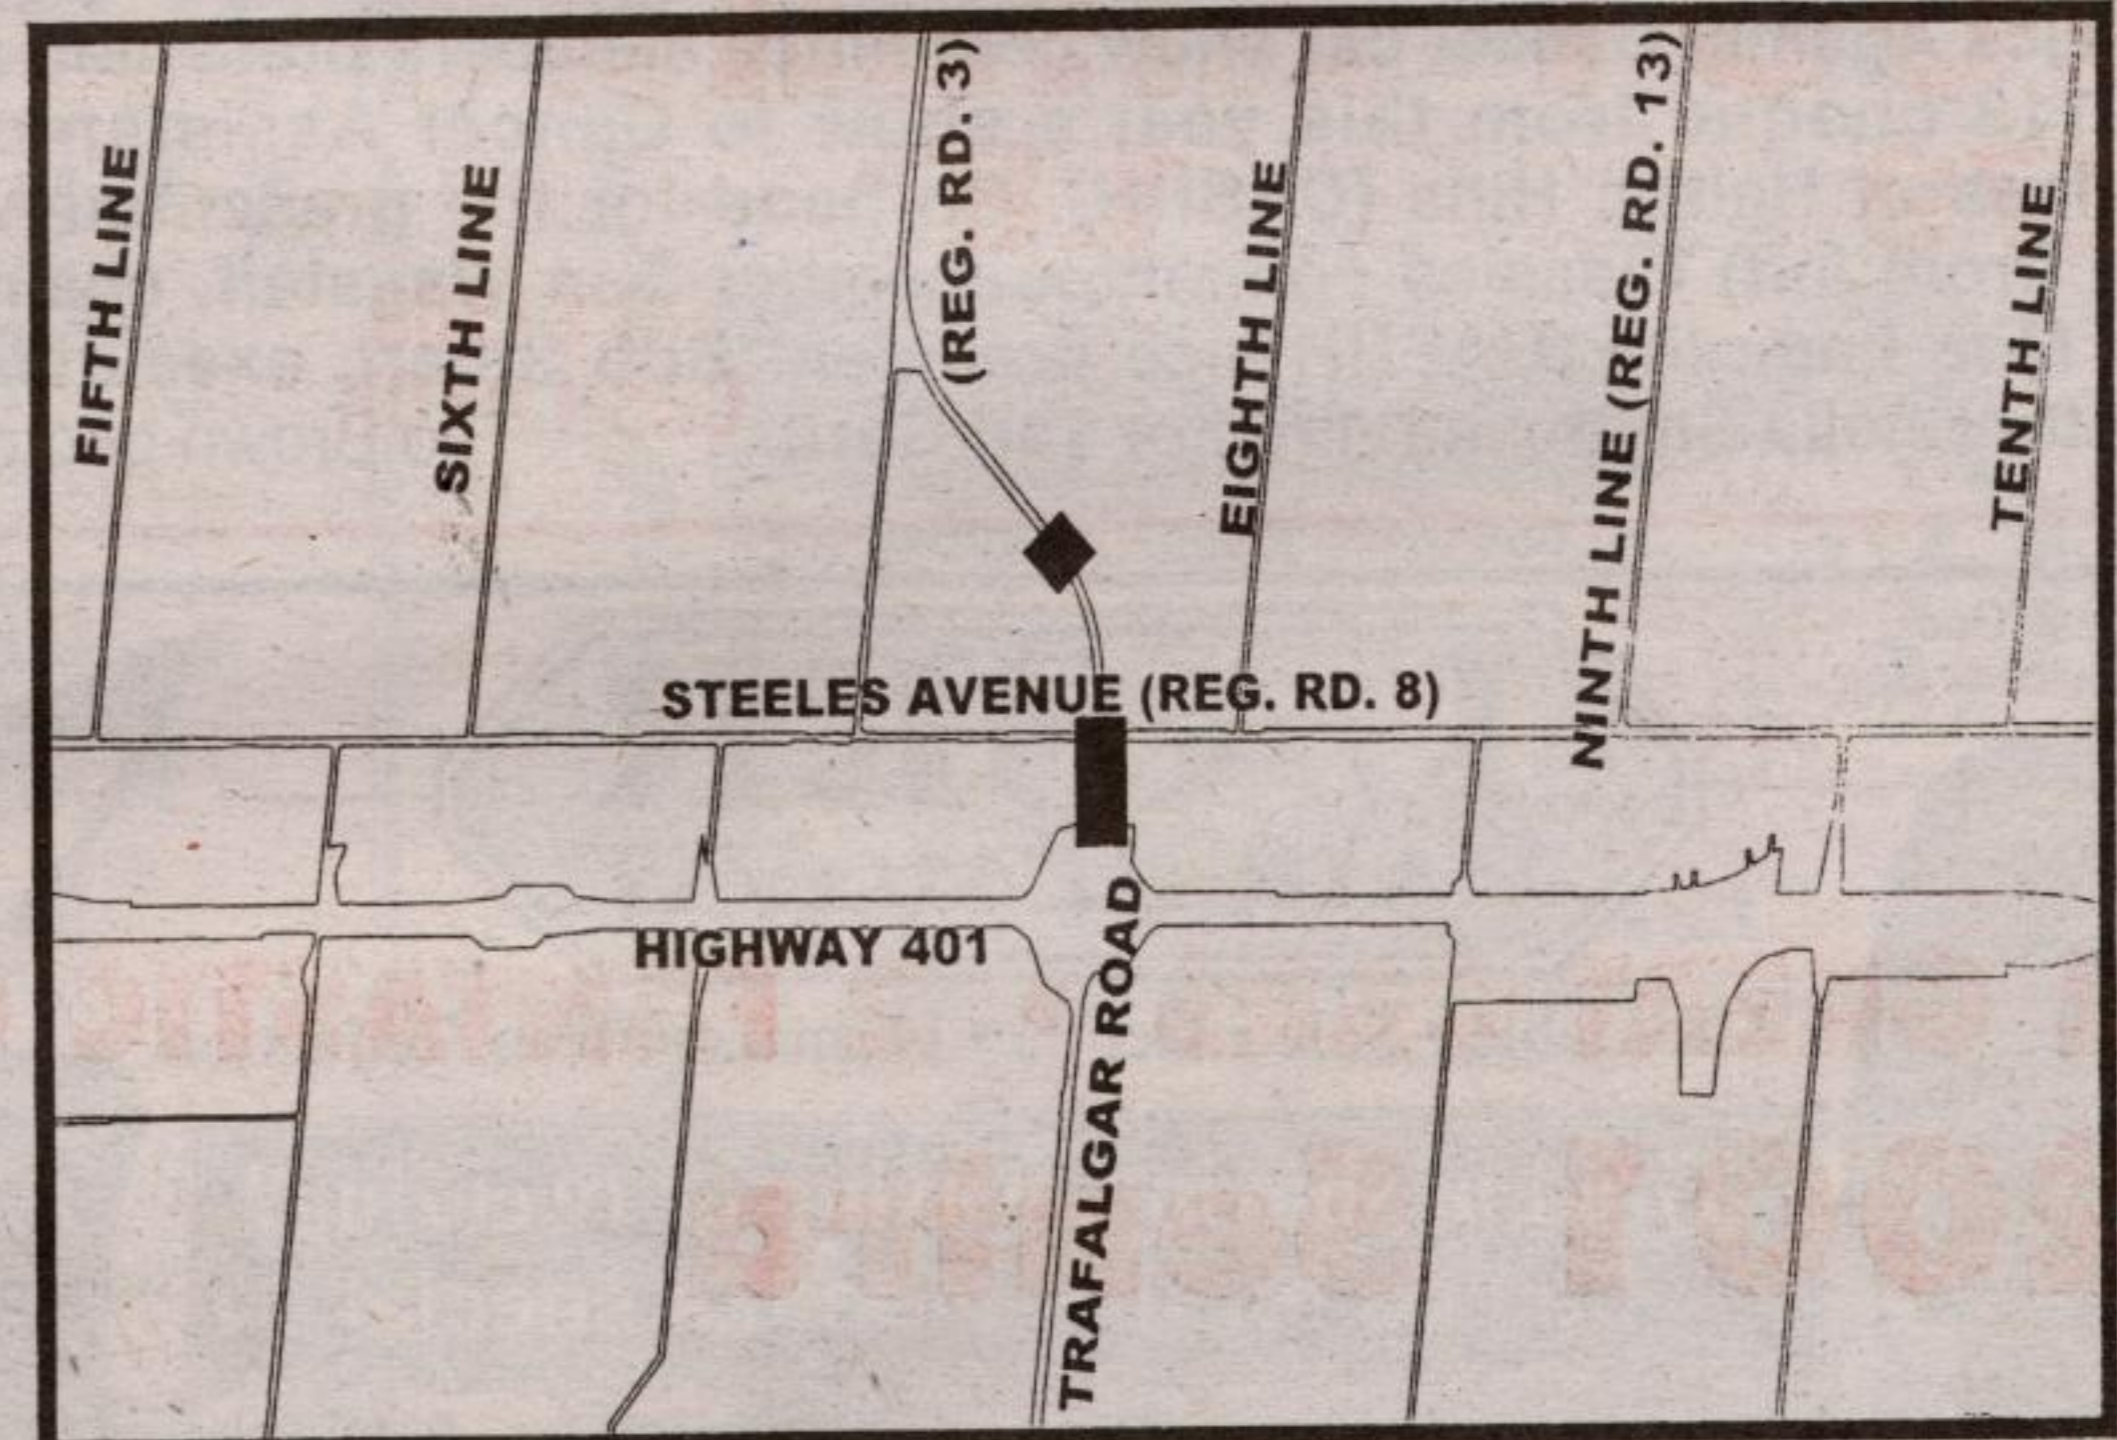

For more information call Program Information Hotline at 905-873-2601, ext. 2275.

Meanwhile there's only 10 spaces are left for community organizations wanting to participate at the Sept. 29 Community Open House in the Georgetown Marketplace Mall.

This Open House is dedicated to the International Year of the Volunteer and organizations using volunteers will find this an excellent opportunity to recruit youths and adults. To secure a space call the Town of Halton Hills, 905-873-2601, (Joy Thompson, ext. 2263 or Dianne Butler, ext. 2261).
