

Acton goes to the cats Sunday

Join the Good Mews Cat Club for its 5th annual Canadian Cat Association Affiliated Championship and Household Pet Cat Show, on Sunday, Aug. 12, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Acton Arena.

The theme for this year's show is "Happy Days" with prizes for the best decorated cage and best dressed exhibitor with a 1950's theme. There will be up to 100 beautiful and unusual breeds of cats competing in five rings for top show honours, with points scoring for Canadian Cat Association's national awards. Also, a variety of interesting vendors will be displaying and selling everything for the cat and its owner.

Admission is $6 for adults, $3 for children and seniors and $15 for a family. Info: Sandra Runalls-Lichty, 519-853-4382.

Performing arts camp begins Monday

Camp Encore! a performing arts camp for children is back for a second year.

The camp, which will run August 13-17 and Aug. 20-25 at Georgetown Alliance Church, is open to youngsters ages 8-15 for a cost of $125 per week or $225 for both weeks.

Children will receive instruction in four disciplines: drama, creative movement and dance, singing and music. Each of the instructors has had experience working with children and has worked professionally in the disciplines they teach.

"We are offering the option of attending for only one week or for both weeks recognizing the need for flexibility as time is at a premium for most families during summer," said camp co-ordinator Patrick Timney, who is also the Pastor of Worship and Outreach at Georgetown Alliance Church.

"The program varies for each week, so campers coming for the full two weeks will be participating in different programs."

"I was amazed at the energy and talent the kids had (last year)," said Lori Lapierre, a four-time national tap champion and choreographer and the camp's dance instructor.

Georgetown Alliance Church is located at 290 Main Street S. For information call 905-873-0249.
