Maple Leaf tees it up for Spinal Cord Society

Cory Cross (left), a defenceman with the Toronto Maple Leafs, congratulated Georgetown's Wayne MacDonald at Friday's Spinal Cord Society Golf Tournament at Georgetown Golf Course, in aid of the Halton Hills Chapter of the Spinal Cord Society. The tournament, which included 144 golfers, raised approximately $20,000 for the local chapter.

Two Terry Fox Runs set for Sunday

Georgetown and Acton will be among the more than 240 communities across Ontario holding Terry Fox Runs Sunday, September 16.

The 21st Annual Terry Fox Run will be held in Georgetown at Georgetown South Community Park from 9:30 a.m. to 2 p.m., and in Acton at the Acton High School track from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. Participants can run, walk, wheel or cycle around both courses, and in Georgetown they can also rollerblade.

Jen and Kyle Goodlet, organizers of the Georgetown run, said this year's goal is $15,000. Last year the Georgetown run raised $10,000 for cancer research.

Acton's run raised $29,000 and Hurst said they hope to raise that much this year also.

Pledge sheets are available at many locations including Bank of Montreal, TD Canada Trust, Scotiabank, 7-Eleven, A&P, Loblaws, LCBO, Home Hardware, Mac's Convenience Stores, M&M Meat Shops, Becker's, Country Style Donuts and Baker's Dozen Donuts, or can be obtained at the run site the day of the event.

For more information or if you want to donate in Acton call Hurst at 519-853-2015 and if you are interested in donating or volunteering call the Goodlets in Georgetown at 905-873-8229. Information is also available at www.terryfoxrun.org.

THE HORSES ARE BACK AT MOHAWK.
