Fair board leaders

Georgetown Agricultural Society executive members including, front, from left, treasurer Mona Milne, president Tim Foster and secretary John Owen and in back, second vice-president Craig Cooper, first vice-president Jeff Nurse, and 2000 Fair Ambassador Kate Sparling, reviewed the success of their 155th Georgetown Fall Fair. The volunteer organization saw close to 12,000 people of all ages enjoy the three-day event.

Georgetown Seniors begin new season of activities

The new season of activities at the Georgetown Seniors Centre officially got under way with a great Open House Week, Sept. 10-14. The public, and particularly seniors, were invited to drop in to see what we have to offer. From this we are happy that a number of new members joined. Ongoing during the week were free classes in many of the activities offered and each day saw quite a crowd at the centre.

Prize winners in the draw were: 50/50 draw— Joyce Monteath, $32.50; Open House draw, Alice Greenaway, first (trip value $52); Wendy Mount, second, 2002 membership; Betty Naylor, third, lunch for two at centre; scrabble contest, Helen McNeil, first, set of pillows; Bernice Nichols, second, pillow; Sylvia Brown, third, chantilly set.

The barbecue on Tuesday was a success bringing in $217 to the centre. We would like to thank the following for their support: Adams Rentall, corn pot; Allison's Farm, corn; and the many volunteers, in particular, Clarence Gough (use of truck), Lorne From and Ian Farrar (barbecuing) and Jim Taylor (organizer).

On Tuesday, Sept. 25, Geri Fashions of London will be back with another of their shows for the fashion conscious. Viewing is in the morning and the show begins at 1:30 p.m. Tickets are $5 and everyone is welcome. Prizes and light refreshments will be available.

Please note: there will be no craft group meeting this Tuesday.

Some items also to note: the VON foot care clinic Friday, Sept. 28 at 9 a.m.; a new class in sewing and tatting on Mondays at 10 a.m. in the craft room; Thanksgiving luncheon on Tuesday, Oct. 2 at 12:30 p.m. Soup and sandwiches served by June Gilson's group. Cost is $5.; flu shot clinic on Oct. 2 at 11 a.m.

And last but not least— the new floor. It was completed for our official opening and is cosmetically appealing; but if you ask the carpet bowlers or the shuffleboarders it's the same old floor with its bumps and hollows which makes the playing of these games very difficult. It's too bad the money spent did not get the desired result.

Until next time, cheerio.
