

Plenty of trips ahead

Acton Seniors Centre plans fall schedule

Open House Registration Week, Sept. 10-14, was a successful event and we had many enquiries from potential new members. For the Open House draw the following were winners: Jean Jackson, 2002 membership; Ruby Waterhouse, mystery lunch for two; George Lee, soup and sandwich for two.

We had a weeklong scrabble competition and the winners were: Betty Green, 2002 membership; Jean Jackson, soup and sandwich lunch for two; Marion Storey, Casino Rama trip for two.

The barbecue on Friday, Sept. 14 was special to be able to welcome Adriana Lawless' husband, daughter and granddaughter, and the following dignitaries: MPP Ted Chudleigh, MPP Administrative Assistant Terry Jackson; town Recreation and Parks recreation services manager Joy Thompson, and Councillor Rick Bonnette on behalf of Mayor Kathy Gastle.

- Upcoming trips:

Have you picked up the newsletter for September and October?

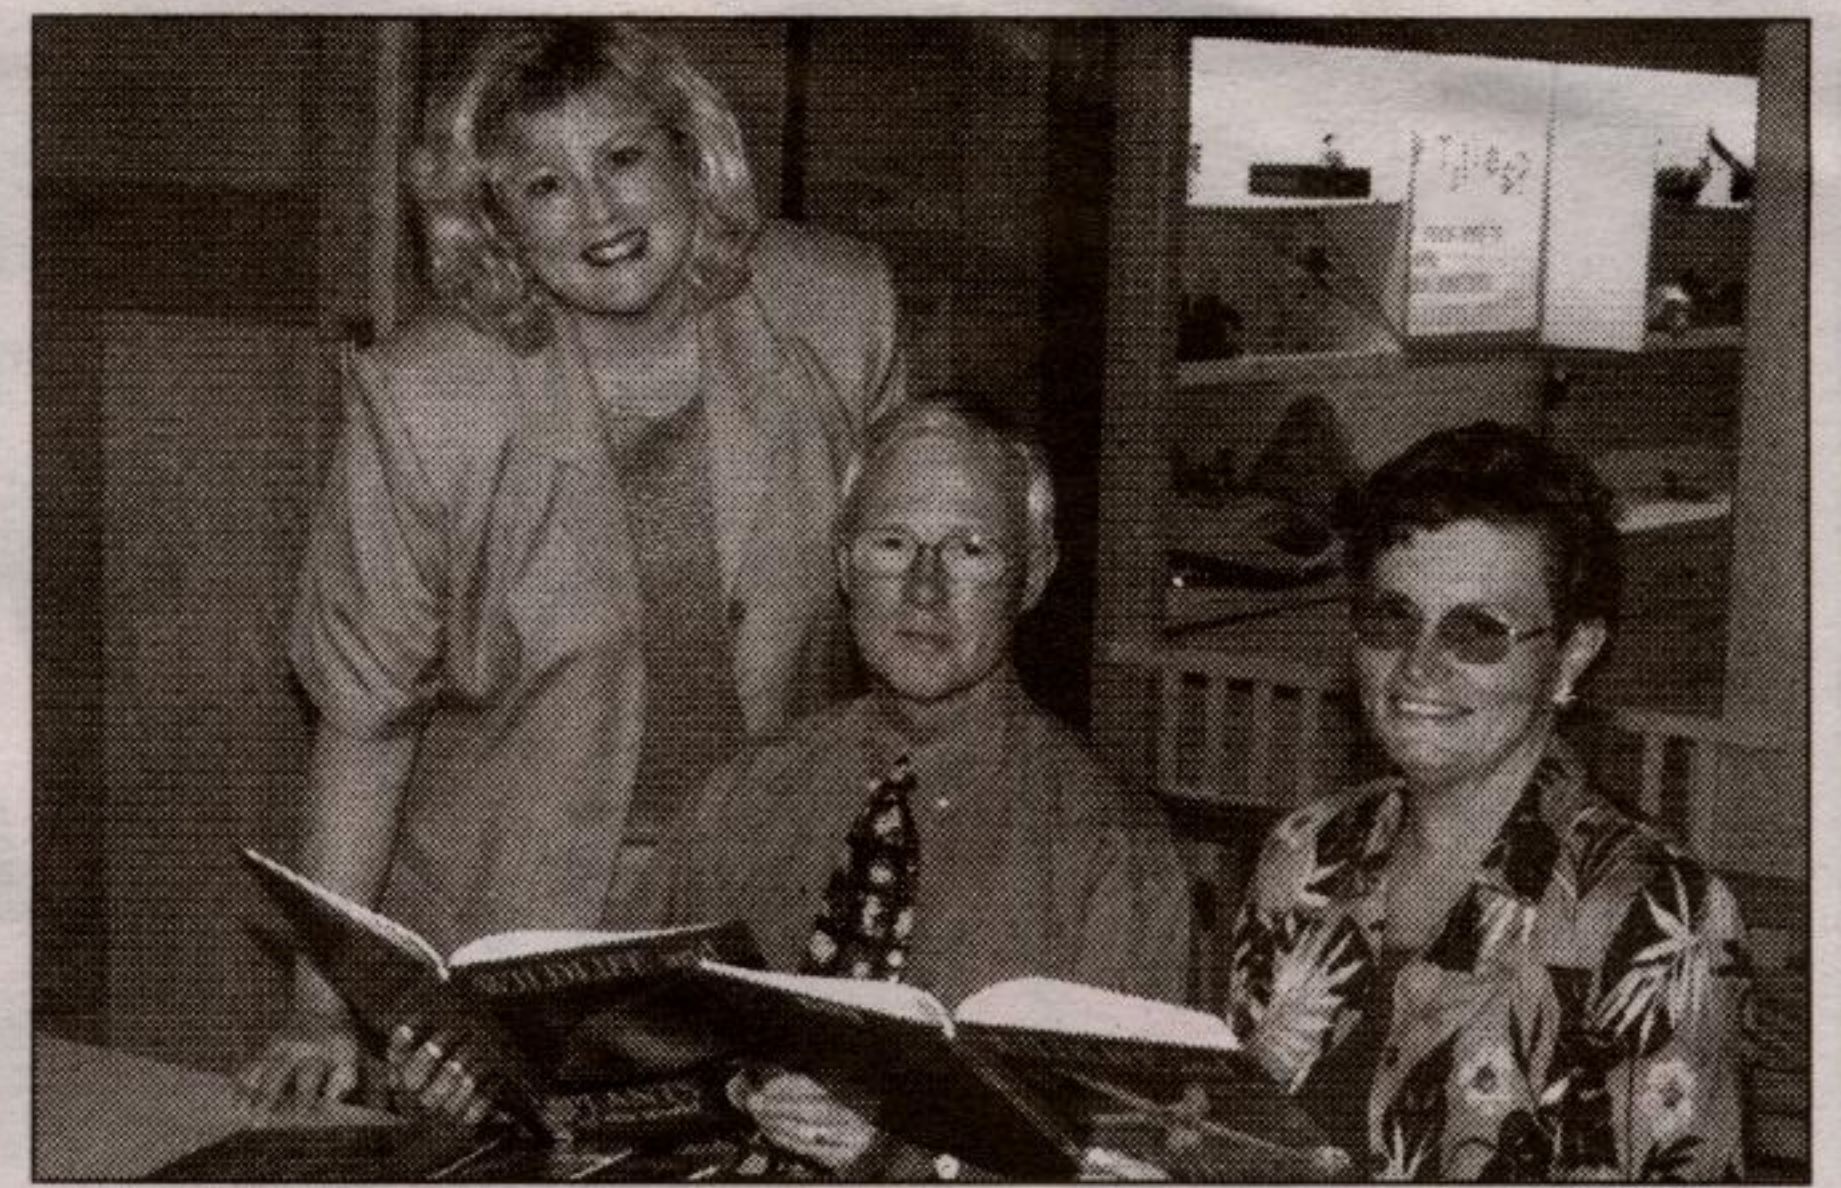

We need a driver to take a route in Georgetown for our Snack Box program. We pay for your gas and more. The run will take about an hour of your time, and the program is a good fund-raiser for the centre. Contact Gerald Rennie, 519-853-5951.

Wendy Krever has joined the centre as of September 10 to take over the position of seniors coordinator vacated by Adriana Lawless who has devoted so much time and effort for the betterment of our centre. We will sincerely miss Adriana.

The centre is also going to miss the services and contributions of our previous correspondent Dorothy Redekop. I learned of her passing only on September 15 upon my return from vacation. The centre extends sympathy and condolences to Dot's husband Nick, and all family members.
