Minor hockey roundup

Atom Raiders roll over Acton 7-2

Darcy Cook and Cody Matthews each scored twice as the Georgetown Major Atom Raiders recorded a 7-2 exhibition win over Acton.

James Miziolek, David Carscadden and Kevin Bolton also scored for the Raiders while Mackenzie Doell had a pair of assists. Luke Ovenden, Steven Worby, Mike Parsons, Carscadden, Bolton and Cook also drew helpers.

Milton scored two unanswered goals to edge the Raiders 3-2. Mike Parsons and Cook scored with an assist to Ryan Thomson.

Major Novice Hurricanes

Andrew Haffner, Brandon Denham and Michael Sgarbossa each scored twice as Halton blanked Guelph 8-0.

Jeremy Ford recorded the shutout.

The 'Canes didn't get their first goal until two minutes left in the second but they were unstoppable in the third. Nolan Banasco and Stephen Silas also scored while Ryan Brazeau had two assists.

Halton tied Oakville 3-3 in the season opener. Denham scored twice and Ian McCrae added the other goal.

Minor Pee wee Hurricanes

Detroit Little Caesars scored with 32 seconds left in overtime to edge the Halton Ontario Energy Savings Corporation Hurricanes 4-3 in the Christie Cup Invitational Tournament final.

Jeff Bayley scored in double overtime to lift Halton to a thrilling 3-2 win over the Toronto Red Wings in the semifinal.

In round-robin play, Chris Bragger posted shutouts in 5-0 wins over Illinois and York-Simcoe. Halton also defeated Mississauga 5-4.

Matthew Price was named tournament MVP with four goals and eight points in five games. Bayley and Sean Dowell each scored four times and Erik Vos and Michael Kosziwka each had two goals and five points. Arron Alphonso had a goal and seven assists. Daniel Woolford also scored.

Raiders dump arch-rival Merchants

The Raiders also had to stave off a comeback Saturday night. Again they led 4-1 but Milton rallied to tie the game 5-5 by the midway point of the third. The Raiders regained the lead when Mike Taylor jumped into the rush to convert Chris Clarkson's pass. Three minutes later Clarkson scooped up a turnover in the neutral zone, raced in and tucked a shot under the crossbar for a 7-5 lead. Busby completed his hat-trick with an empty-net goal.

Friday it was the Raiders who had their comeback bid fall short. Nic Bibic and McCarthy erased a 3-1 Bramalea lead but the Blues scored the next three en route to a 7-4 win.

RAIDER RAP: Ryan Ellis and Chris Clarkson each scored their first Jr. A goal Saturday, then scored again the following night....McCarthy had a goal in each of the weekend games....Busby took over the team lead in both goals (6) and points (11)...The Raiders host Streetsville Saturday at 7:30 p.m., then play in Hamilton Monday.
